Assessment Handbook Updates

Version, Page #	Update
Version 1.0	3/14/2023: A new version of the handbook (V1.1) has been published to clarify language regarding descriptive statements. Some Flex assessments allow the candidate to select descriptive statements to address, and some require all descriptive statements to be addressed. The template for each assessment will indicate the descriptive statement requirements for that assessment.
Version 1.2	3/5/2024: A new version of the handbook (V1.2) has been published to include the addition of a Prior to Registering for MTEL-Flex section and the clarification of information in the Planning Your Submission and Submission Readiness sections. The included sample template for MTEL®-Flex English Template: Objective 0014 was also updated in the handbook.
